

PAIMI strives to achieve the following OUTCOMES for people with a diagnosis of mental illness

Accessible Communities People with a diagnosis of mental illness gain access to employment, public facilities, government programs and services and transportation as established in the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Freedom from Abuse and Neglect People with a diagnosis of mental illness are free from acts, or failures to act, which result in their physical, psychological or financial harm or death.

Independence, Productivity, Integration and Inclusion People with a diagnosis of mental illness enjoy the opportunities to experience personal growth, to work and contribute to society; and to be accepted and recognized for their abilities. They have the right to accept challenges, to take risks, to learn from mistakes and to experience success. They have the right to live in interdependent relationships in their own homes and communities.

Self Determination People with a diagnosis of mental illness advocate and make choices for themselves; select, control and evaluate the services they receive; and demonstrate their own competence.

HAWAII DISABILITY RIGHTS CENTER

The sole mission of the Hawaii Disability Rights Center is to protect and promote the human, civil and legal rights of individuals with disabilities, as established in the constitutions and laws of the State of Hawaii and the United States, through the provision of information and advocacy.

HDRC, formerly known as the Protection and Advocacy Agency of Hawaii, is a private non-profit public interest organization established in 1977. It is Hawaii's Protection and Advocacy System for People with Disabilities, as authorized in federal and state law and designated by the Governor. It is funded by the federal and state governments and private sources, to fulfill its mandate.

Protection and Advocacy for Individuals with Mental Illness (PAIMI)

PAIMI is authorized by the federal Protection and Advocacy for Mentally Ill Individuals Act of 1986, as amended, to:

- Protect people with a diagnosis of mental illness from abuse and neglect; and
- Advocate for rights of people with a diagnosis of mental illness, as established in our federal and state constitutions and laws.
